

Sinclair's proposed airing of an anti-Kerry special program several days before the election is blatantly illegal. The FCC should prevent this misuse of public airwaves. If Sinclair is serious about the "documentary" nature of this programming, they certainly can't object to showing it after the election.